

Mila Shapovalov has been a member of UNCLE Credit Union since 2006 and has served the Credit Union first as a Member of the Supervisory Committee in 2013 and subsequently as a Board Director since 2014.

Mila has been employed by Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory for more than fifteen years and is currently a Resource Manager. In this position, she is responsible for developing and overseeing multi-million budgets, performing variance analysis, and ensuring policy compliance.

Mila holds an M.B.A. degree from Golden Gate University and a B.A. in Psychology from San Jose State University. Mila believes she can continue to faithfully serve and perform her duties as a Director of the Board due to her knowledge of the Credit Union and her experience in financial management and contract administration.
